

Delegate Charniele L. Herring is the Vice Chair and resides in Alexandria. Delegate Herring is an attorney and represents the 46th district in the General Assembly. She is president of the West End Business Association and former chair of the Alexandria Commission for Women. Delegate Herring is a 2006 graduate of the Sorensen Political Leaders Program at the University of Virginia.

M. Allyn Brooks-LaSure is the Press Director. He is Deputy Associate Administrator for Public Affairs at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and resides in Arlington with his wife. Allyn has participated in local, statewide and national campaigns in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Mississippi, and Ohio.

Gary Scotland is the Political Outreach Director. Gary is president of Mobux Americas, a mobile banking and payment solution company based in Virginia. Mr. Scotland has over 10 years of professional domestic and international experience with a variety of prestigious public and private organizations such as UNICEF, The World Bank, Fannie Mae and Turner Broadcasting System. Mr. Scotland graduated from the American University in Washington DC with a Master's degree in International Relations and Development and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing from Howard University also in Washington DC.

Lynn White is a part of the Development Committee. She currently works as a Senior Policy Associate at the Children's Defense Fund. Prior to joining CDF, Lynn served as a legal fellow at Texas Appleseed in Austin, Texas, where she assisted with efforts to reform the Texas juvenile justice system, evaluated the impact of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 on Texas school districts, and developed a pro bono program for hurricane survivors in need of legal assistance. Previous positions include legislative assistant to Representative Dawnna Dukes in the Texas State House of Representatives and associate at the law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher in Washington, D.C., where she worked on labor and employment and trade and regulatory matters. She holds a J.D. from Howard University School of Law, where she served as senior editor of the Howard Law Journal, and a bachelor's degree in social work from the University of Texas.

Helena Payne is the Training Director. During the 2008 election, she was a grassroots organizer and served as a delegate for the 8th congressional district of Virginia at the local and state party conventions. She currently teaches U.S. History in Alexandria and previously worked as a reporter in Boston. Helena holds a master's degree in education from Harvard, where she also researched civic education and social capital theory at the Kennedy School of Government. Her undergraduate degree is from the University of Notre Dame.

Don Scoggins is a Member at Large. After Don completed active military duty, he began his diverse professional career working six years in Washington, DC for the Government as an urban planner, housing official and community organizer. After briefly retiring in 2003, Don spent several stints employed by the federal government and pursued grassroots political activism. Civic and fraternal activities include serving as trustee of the 1906 congressionally chartered, Frederick Douglass Memorial and Historical Association; Prince William County's Committee of 100; and, membership in the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.